It has been said, that while old friends give us a sense of security, new friends mean you are looking toward the future. Dr. Randy Reese has combined the two for what will be an exciting event for the October Coastal Jazz Association monthly concert at the Cobblestone Conch House (225 W. River Street). The concert is free for Coastal Jazz Association members and $10 for non-members. Attendees who join CJA while at the concert will also be admitted for free.

Dr. Reese teaches at Armstrong Atlantic State and still co-leads the Savannah Jazz Orchestra with trombonist Teddy Adams. Pat Hill and Randy Reese have performed together since 1980. Dr. Reese expounds: "We have played hundreds of gigs together with small groups and with the Savannah Jazz Orchestra. Pat also joined me for two performing and teaching trips to Argentina."

Mr. Hill no longer resides in Savannah so this is an exciting event for both players. He retired from teaching in the Beaufort schools about two years ago and moved to eastern Alabama, near Rome, Georgia. This concert will be something of a reunion for the two very skillful musicians.

CJA CONCERT: OCTOBER 22

Billy Hoffman is the son of family friends of Dr. Reese. "I remember being in the old Schroeder's Music Store on Montgomery Crossroad when his mother came in to buy his first drum set." Billy studied at Armstrong and Georgia Southern and is now teaching middle school in Chatham County.

Willie Harvey is the "new friend" of the group. Reese met Willie while playing in Darius Rucker's big band. Harvey also performed with the Savannah Jazz Orchestra at the most recent Duke Ellington concert.

Mr. Harvey is a graduate of the College of Charleston, where he studied bass with Frank Duvall. He has just moved to the Bluffton area, so Savannah will likely be hearing a lot more from him in the future. For More Information: www.coastal-jazz.org.
